Bringing Limitless Mercy Across the World

The Mercy Without Limits family is excited to be reaching out to all our beloved members this time of year. There are so many programs that we are actively working on, and upcoming causes that you will have the first opportunity to contribute towards.

It is a very busy and blessed time of year, and with the growth and success we are seeing, we are eternally grateful. What we achieve, we could not do without you. Our supporters are humanitarians, and together we continue to work to make the world a better place.

“Let us touch the dying, the poor, the lonely and the unwanted according to the graces we have received and let us not be ashamed or slow to do the humble work.”

- Mother Teresa.
Our team at Mercy Without Limits is celebrating women worldwide this month in honor of International Women’s Day. We appreciate all of the females in our family of donors, staff, and volunteers who make our success possible. Women have been a pillar of strength and shown patience and perseverance under unimaginable pressure in this modern era, and throughout history.
We are honored to share the beautiful inspiration that some of the most influential females have provided the global community across generations.

"You may not always have a comfortable life and you will not always be able to solve all of the world's problems at once but don't ever underestimate the importance you can have because history has shown us that courage can be contagious and hope can take on a life of its own."

- Michelle Obama
“You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You are able to say to yourself, ‘I lived through this horror. I can take the next thing that comes along.’ You must do the thing you think you cannot do.”

- Eleanor Roosevelt
In the month of March, in line with celebrating strong females everywhere, Mercy Without Limits launched our Widow Initiative, shining a light on the struggles of these silently powerful women; and offering donors the opportunity to be a part of our efforts to enable their independence. Single mothers are renowned for their resilience, and in many places all they need to aspire and achieve is opportunity. By supplying them with food and access to vocational education, we’ve been able to equip these motivational mothers with the skills they need to succeed in their efforts to attain self-sustainability.

Any form of academia is appreciated by these withstanding women.
MWL provides widows opportunities to cultivate their talents and tries to help them find work or become businesswomen. We provide them with literacy courses, language courses and computer training courses; along with training in sewing, food production, soap production and hairdressing. We are thrilled to participate in giving these wonderful women a chance to achieve independence and provide for their children as single mothers.

Mother’s Day

In line with Mother’s Day in the Middle East, Mercy Without Limits hosted a festive event to show our appreciation for widows in our care.

Widows and displaced mothers were invited to attend as our esteemed guests.

Darling daughters performed a song in celebration of their strong mothers.
Precious children presented their parents with gifts we provided to show appreciation.

A breathtaking set up for beautiful souls.

Roses and gifts were given to convey gratitude.
Rugged Rock Climbers

“Tolerance and compassion are active, not passive states, born of the capacity to listen, to observe and to respect others.”
- Indira Gandhi

MWL was excited to host a rock-climbing event for young working women in Kansas City this month. Daring donors and staff alike joined in celebrating feminine strength by scaling walls side by side. It was a pleasure to network and connect for work and play, and we feel blessed to have such an extensive family of supporters.

Together, we can move mountains and change the world.
Sisters in strength pull themselves up and encourage each other to reach higher.

Courage is a comfort inspired by good company.
Rohingya Fire Relief

"Fight for the things that you care about, but do it in a way that will lead others to join you."

- Ruth Bader Ginsburg

On March 8th a deadly fire broke out in the largest refugee camp in the world in Bangladesh. Cox’s Bazaar, home to around 900,000 Rohingya refugees, saw a fire that killed at least one child and left around 2,000 people homeless yet again.

Our valued volunteers surveyed and supplied resilient refugees with support.
Mercy Without Limits was informed of this tragedy and took action quickly – alerting our family of staff and donors and organizing relief efforts for these families that have faced consistent tribulation since being forced to flee their homes years ago. With the help of our generous donors, the MWL team in Bangladesh was able to distribute necessities and provide shelter to refugees affected by the disaster.

Families were left with little yet again – but with the help of our donors we were able to aid them.

Staff were eager to pack and provide much-needed supplies.
Your donations brought resources to the Rohingya in their time of need.

Food boxes will last families for weeks as they recover.
Ramadan Ready!

“Carry out a random act of kindness, with no expectation of reward, safe in the knowledge that one day someone might do the same for you.”

- Princess Diana

Food Baskets for Families in Need

With the help of our generous network of donors, last Ramadan Mercy Without Limits was able to provide 4,352 food baskets to widows and orphans across numerous countries. We couldn’t have done it without dedicated donors like you!
This year, we’ve already begun distributing food baskets to families facing hardship. Food baskets will be supplied to families across several countries, including Syria, Turkey, Jordan, Lebanon, Bangladesh, Pakistan, Sierra Leone and Yemen. Our food baskets provide enough provisions to last a family for the entire month!

We’re in awe of the wonderful women on our global team.

Together we made a difference, and together we will continue to.
Sponsoring an orphan makes such a monumental difference to a child who has lost a parent or both parents and needs assistance to continue to grow and develop, both physically and psychologically. Mercy Without Limits’ Orphan Sponsorship program is one of our most well-known projects, as it is so vital, yet often a cause that is overlooked by the global community.

“We were scared, but our fear was not as strong as our courage.”

- Malala Yousafzai

Witnessing joy with these young orphan women is wonderous.
Last Ramadan, our generous donors took the initiative, and we received 863 new orphan sponsorships during the Holy Month. Throughout the entire year these children have been cared for, and brought one year closer to adulthood with safety and supplies.

Enjoying education keeps them excited to learn and achieve.
In the spirit of new beginnings and making beneficial changes, Mercy Without Limits hopes to bring even more orphans assistance this year. We provide basic necessities, school supplies and education to an orphan on our donors’ behalf, giving the children a sense of security and stability as they receive consistent support. Thank you for being a part of aiding a child on their journey to adulthood, and enabling them to aspire and achieve.
"To bring about change, you must not be afraid to take the first step."

- Rosa Parks

One major movement that we would like to shine a light on this Ramadan is bringing clean water to displaced and underserved communities. Many of our generous donors have been blessed to take part in this crucial cause, and we hope they know the extent of our gratitude. Last year, our donors provided to build 316 water wells, which included 301 tube water wells and 15 deep water wells. You are the reason that families who’ve struggled through disaster and conflict now have access to fresh water to clean and consume.
These families now face one fewer worry – thanks to your donation!

Our capable supporters always come through with their contributions. This Ramadan, we will be bringing more wells to communities in need of clean water in multiple countries. They’ve filled their pools of blessing by providing in a way that restores health, hygiene and hope.

They’ll be collecting clear, consumable water to refresh and rehydrate for years to come.
